Dear Editors,

We thank the reviewers for their constructive comments that we have addressed fully in this revised version of our manuscript, 'A Bayesian Mixture Modelling Approach For Spatial Proteomics'. The revised manuscript has also been uploaded on the bioRxiv¹.

We provide a detailed response to each reviewer's comments, a fully revised manuscript, as well as an annotated version of the revised manuscript.

Thanking you very much in advance for considering our manuscript for submission.

On behalf of the authors,

Yours sincerely,
Dr Laurent Gatto
